Subgrants with foreign entities are based on grant deliverables and promises to pass through funding to international organizations. Under no circumstances do foreign grantees become agents of Earthworks nor do foreign grantees attempt to influence domestic public opinion. For foreign grantees, budget holders and program staff manage the relationships, requests, letters of agreement, and deliverables, if necessary, of the grantees. The program staff request payments according to our cash disbursements protocol. Grant requests are uploaded to our bill payment software where they are approved by their supervisor. Finance also reviews the payments for coding and grant allocation purposes. The grants finally are approved by one of Earthworks' signatories and is released for payment. In cases where our bill payment platform can not process the grant to the particular country, the Finance and Operations Director enters a wire request in our banking platform. The wire is released when a signatory approves it for payment.

Part I, line 3:

Expenses are recorded and accounted for on the accrual method of accounting. Travel expenses are actual and based on planned travel in our budget. Invoices are recorded using accrual method.
